Biography

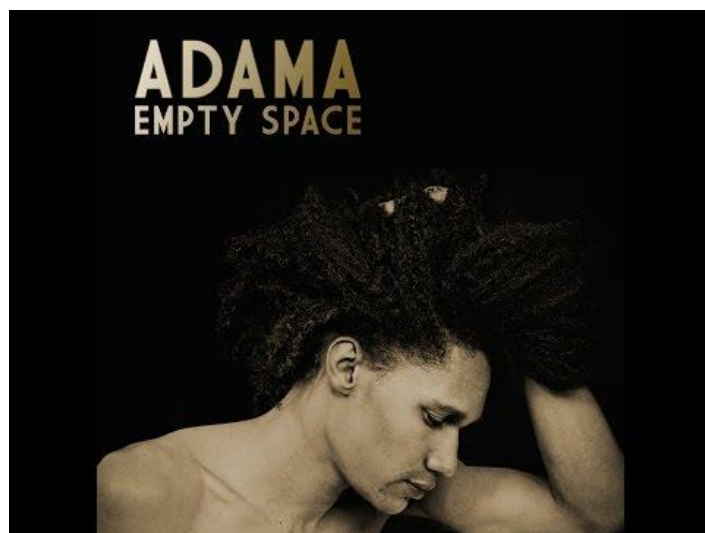

Singer/songwriter and producer from an Italian - Senegalese parentage, whose love of music drove him to develop his own unique blend of harmony and rhythm. Exotic and alluring, Adama spent his formative years between Dakar, London, Los Angeles, Paris and Milan.

Adama's musical concept is encapsulated with his perception of love, philosophy, family, society and his own experiences, dreams and journeys. It's through this medium that an immense synergy is formed between himself and his music. His blend of music is pop, soul, electronica with hints of groovy soulful vibes influenced by artists such as Seal, Sade, Prince, Portishead, Marvin Gaye and D'Angelo.

His ambition, through music is to elevate people's spirits, to be happy and to identify themselves with his lyrics. His song writing is simplistic and always evolving - his state of mind, passion and fears which he ferociously embraces gives him the extra chutzpah to keep pushing the project.

Adama is currently working with Darkjoint on production duties and the JPM Production team on his follow up EP for the label entitled, 'Tribulation'.
